CACAO CEREMONIES

Find the space to reconnect with Mother Earth, and with each other through ancient wisdom. Cacao is a soft yet very profound plant medicine that opens the heart and invites the softness of our inner being to shine. The power of working in a circle with this medicine invites a feeling of self-renewal that reconnects us with our hearts, bringing more joy, bliss, and love to our lives.

SUNSET CEREMONY

Leave behind all that longer serves you and reconnect with your body and mind, the earth and everything around you.

Cleansing your energetic and spiritual body in a clarifying ceremony releases negative energy and all that is no longer serving your future self. Our sunset ceremonies are particularly beautiful at the beginning and end of a retreat and at weddings, birthdays or other special celebrations. At group events, they serve as a welcome ceremony to set the tone and unite the group and at the end to integrate the shared experience.

TANIT SANCTUARY

Tanit is the protector of Ibiza and guardian of womankind, her shrine, hidden deep in the rocks in the ancient Cova d'es Cuieram, was only discovered in 1907. Some say she still watches over the island. This unique experience starts with a walk up an ancient pilgrim's path to the entry of the cave, where you will be welcomed by traditional music, hear folklore and give an offering to express gratitude to the goddess and for the sun – the ultimate natural power which guides our every waking moment. A meditation will help you enter a deep relaxation and connect to the island and ultimately your inner self.
