Environment

Each excursion has been created with sustainability and the environment in mind. It is our aim to showcase the best that this region has to offer and the rich beauty and culture of this vibrant destination.

We are pleased to offer additional food and beverage services to your trip. Please speak with your GEM to make arrangements. We strive to make your vacation memorable and create meaningful experiences

All prices are in Euro and include Tax. If you require any further information or simply wish to chat, please do not hesitate to contact our Experiences Team at Extension 8330 or stop in and see us at our office located at the level five.

Booking

It is our pleasure to confirm bookings between 8:00 am and 6:00 pm. For out-of-office-hours enquiries, please contact your GEM who can be of assistance.

Cancellation Policy

If you wish to cancel your excursion, please inform the Experiences Team or your GEM at least six hours prior to the scheduled departure time. If notification is given within this six hours window, fifty percent of the total amount will be charged as a cancellation fee. If no cancellation notice is given, the full cost of the tour will be applied to your account.

If your scheduled tour is subject to cancellation based on inclement weather conditions, no fees are charged and we will work with you to reschedule your adventure for a sunnier day. All prices include VAT where applicable.

Into Bodrum

BODRUM

Bodrum Museum of Underwater Archaeology

With 14 departments within the museum, it has grown in size substantially and is regarded as one of the more interesting museums for anyone with an interest in Ottoman, Crusader, Greek, Roman and Maritime history.

Bodrum Castle

The castle was constructed by the Knights of Rhodes in the 15th century during the crusades of the Middle Ages, and it was given the name The Castle of St. Petrus, or Petronium.

The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus

The Mausoleum was considered as one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. It was built between 353 and 350 BC for Mausolus, a satrap in the Persian Empire and Artemisia II. of Caria, who by his wife and his sister.

Theatre of Halicarnassus

The theatre is another witness to the great past of Bodrum. The theatre consists of three different sections; a place for audience, a place for an orchestra and the stage. It became an open-air museum after the excavations in 1973.

LOCAL GIFTS

Bodrum Sandals

Handmade Bodrum Sandals which can be made to measure only for you. One of the best place to buy handmade, pure leather sandals is Arkadaş Sandalet located on Bodrum Bars Street.

Bodrum Sponges

‘Gold from the bottom of the ocean’ could be the name of these valuable sponges. They are porous animals of geometric shape which grow between 10 and 70 meters deep on stones in the ocean. A sponge expert says, ‘The best sponges have big holes, and after being squeezed return to their original shape and size.

Evil Eyes

The evil eye is a curse believe to be cast by a malevolent glare, usually given to a person when they are unaware. Many cultures believe that receiving the evil eye will cause misfortune or injury. Evil Eyes are a very common belief in Turkish culture and you will find them in almost every shop on Bars Street.

Bodrum Peştamal

A peştamal is a thin, very absorbent traditional Turkish towel with more than 600 years of history, linked closely with the traditions of early hamams. Today, the tradition of peştamal meets Contemporary design and modern perception. Bodrum Havlu is a local Bodrum brand that cares about having unique pieces with stories in its collections.

Into Culture

Discover the unique and bohemian atmosphere of Bodrum peninsula, shaped by the ancient ruins of Halikarnassos with whitewashed houses, crystal clear water and a welcoming breeze. Is the peninsula is surrounded by 32 small islands and its highest elevation reaches 690m. Enchanting fishing villages can be found on the quiet bays, particularly on the Northern side, while tangerine orchards and olive groves cover the fertile interior.

Into Trekking and Adventure

At Six Senses Kaplankaya we follow sustainable practices both inside and outside the resort and we constantly strive towards raising awareness among our guests and hosts. All our activities and excursions are delivered with respect to our surrounding environment.

Dive Sites: Panayır Island

The island has a rocky sloped landscape and is inhabited by typical marine life for this area. Depth vary from six to 20 meters (19 to 66 feet). This site is suitable for experienced divers. Occasionally weather conditions may effect visibility.

Altinkum Coast Guard Vessel

This vessel was purposely sunk to help repopulate the area with marine life. Just a short boat ride away the vessel rests at between 22 to 27 meters (72 to 89 feet). Because of the depth of the vessel, this site can be visited by certified divers over the depth of 18 meter (59 feet).

Aegean Wreck Dives

Along the Aegean Coast of Turkey artificial reefs in the form of vessels and other vehicles can be found. It would be our pleasure to take you diving for the day and visit Europe's largest airplane wreck (Airbus 300) or an amazing military supply ship.

GOLF DAY

As Arthur Daley said, 'Golf is like a love affair. If you don't take it seriously, it's no fun; if you do take it seriously, it breaks your heart'. Head to one of the best golf clubs in the region and enjoy the day hitting the ball.

Bodrum Golf Club is situated on an area of 120,000 square meters (1,291,669 square feet) and provides the facility of a 9-hole golf course, designed to meet international standards. The course holes consist of par-3 or par-4. The 31 par golf course is made up of five par-3 holes and four par-4 holes. While our golf course is normally played as a 9 hole- course, the use of different tees allows the course to be played over 18 holes. There is also a 10-person capacity driving range in addition to putting and chipping practice areas.
